MADE'S WARUNG JAKARTA

A JOURNEY FROM HUMBLE BEGINNINGS TO CULINARY LEGACY

Made's Warung began as a small roadside stall in Kuta in the 1960s, run by Made's grandmother and mother, with help from the daughters. It was a place where local Balinese villagers gathered to drink coffee, enjoy sweet snacks, and chat about daily life in the sleepy fishing village that Kuta was at the time.

As Bali's tourism began to grow in the late '60s and early '70s, the first foreign travelers—hippies, surfers, and holidaymakers—started to arrive. Made, the eldest daughter, began helping after school, gradually evolving the humble warung to cater to the increasing number of tourists. While the heart and structure of the warung remained unchanged, the menu expanded to accommodate international tastes, offering everything from jaffles (grilled sandwiches) and fruit salads to Western-style breakfasts and sushi.

By the 1990s, Made's Warung had become a must-visit spot in Bali, popular with both locals and international visitors. In 1996, a larger, more modern location opened in Seminyak, embracing the concept of communal dining while maintaining the spirit of an informal, friendly gathering place. This success led to its recognition in 1997 as the "Best Restaurant in Bali" by the Governor's Tourism Board.

In 2010, the warung expanded again, integrating new shops and a space for cultural performances and live music, along with a stylish bar inspired by the Raffles Bar in Singapore. This expansion brought even more vibrancy to the area, with boutiques like Bin House and others becoming part of the Made's Warung Village.

In 2017, we opened a small Made's Warung in Amsterdam, run and operated by our family in the Netherlands. It has since become one of the highest-rated warungs in Amsterdam.

Around 2020, Made's Warung began collaborating with Taurus Gemilang, a company specializing in operating food outlets at Indonesian airports. This resulted in the opening of two outlets at Ngurah Rai Airport, in both the domestic and international terminals. In 2022, Made's Warung opened its first outlet in Jakarta at Plaza Senayan, one of the most highly rated shopping malls in the city. In 2025, a second outlet followed in the SCBD (Sudirman Central Business District), Jakarta.

Today, Made's Warung continues to honor its roots, serving home-style cooking in a warm, family-oriented atmosphere. With the next generation ready to carry on the tradition, we hope to continue delighting our loyal customers for many years to come. We thank you all for your loyalty and support through all these exciting years. Let's keep the tradition alive and continue celebrating the wonderful variety of Indonesian cuisine—one of the best in the world.

Best Regards,
Ibu Made Masih
